The Faculty of the Waltham Vocational High School

Death be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadfull, for, thou art not soe,
For, those, whom thou think'st, thou dost overthrow,
Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee.
From rest and sleepe, which but thy pictures bee,
Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,
And soonest our best men with thee doe goe.
Rest of their bones, and soules deliverie.
Thou art slave to Fate, Chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poyson, warre, and sickness dwell,
And poppie, or charmes can make us sleepe as well,
And better than thy stroke; why swell'st thou then?
One short sleepe past, wee wake eternally,
And death shall be no more; death thou shalt die.

In Memoriam

Francis J. Champagne
1925-1972

On April 23, 1972 Waltham Senior High School mourned the loss of Mr. Frank Champagne, custodian and carpenter. He was unfailingly helpful, and he proved himself a friend to staff and students alike. His efforts, his warmth, and, above all, his presence will be a keenly felt loss to our community.

Wilfred F. St. Martin, Sr.
1923-1972

The entire student body, faculty, and administrative staff at Waltham Vocational High School were shocked by the sudden and untimely death of Bill St. Martin at the age of forty-nine.

An educator in the field of electronics at Waltham Vocational High School for thirteen years, his devotion and achievements were indeed noteworthy. He enjoyed teaching and maintained excellent discipline and class control. He was also most fair and understanding for which his students held him in high esteem and regarded him as a warm human being.

Staff members will miss Bill St. Martin for his cooperation in everything that concerned the good of the school, for his dedication to his students and to the cause of vocational education. An infectious sense of humor, combined with integrity and an excellent command of his specialty, will long endear him to us.

In paying final tribute, we know that the memory of Bill St. Martin will linger forever in the minds and hearts of all those who were privileged to have known him. Waltham Vocational High School suffered a great loss in his passing. To his wife Marjorie and to his six sons and daughter, we extend deep and heartfelt sympathy.

Joseph Thibeault
1916-1972

Mr. Joseph Thibeault devoted over thirty years of service to the city of Waltham. When he died on January 31 of this year, he was Supervisor of Attendance for the Waltham School Department, a position which he fulfilled with efficiency, decency and understanding.

He will be missed by his colleagues and by the students of Waltham.

Senior Revue

"Those Were the Days"

With three hundred seniors crammed into what seemed to be a stage, we sang our souls out, danced our feet off and delivered
"THOSE WERE THE DAYS,"
never forgetting the endless rehearsals and the old tardy excuse "I was working."
Together we stood united and prayed for a grand performance with the confident aid of a superb, never tiring staff of advisors.

Senior Prom

"Our Time Is Now,"
In grand style the Senior Class

We, the members of the class of 1972, being of somewhat sound mind and a questionably sound student body, do hereby bequeath and bestow these humble gifts upon sundry members of the faculty and staff of Waltham High School this thirtieth day of May in the year of our new high school 3.

To our beloved principal, Mr. Husson, we leave an "inspired" victory speech for those mornings after the games.

To Mr. Viscarello, Director of the Vocational High School, an ever-expanding curriculum to prepare his students for the decade of the '70's.

To Mr. Levey we leave a driver's license, courtesy of Sears, Roebuck.

To Mr. Neylon, our favorite housemaster, we leave 4,763 (count them) pads of blue slips — enough to finish off the rest of the year.

For Mr. Baldassari we have a pair of scissors to cut the price tags off all his new clothes.

For Miss Cairnes, we have part II of any movie.

To Mrs. Czarnowski, we present one pair of sterling silver tap shoes to match her shining personality.

For Mrs. Demauro, a whole truckload of perfect notebooks.

For Mrs. Danforth, we will smuggle in the key to the lock chaining her to her desk.

To our mostest favoritest English teacher, Miss Devane, we gives a batch of new brownies.

Mr. Dumas, our music director, will receive two free tickets to "The Boys in the Band."

Next on the list is Mr. Eagle, and for him we have found a love letter from Ella Gerber.

For Mrs. Fitzpatrick we plan to install a larger waiting room to accommodate all her prospective cases.

To Fräulein Fryer, Beethoven's most avid fan, we leave an autographed copy of Tenth symphony.

Pour Marcel Karian, nous donnons une copie du disque "Sank Hevens for Leetle Guhrls."

For Mr. Kennedy, we have arranged for another year of Senior Chorale members.

For Dr. Kubin, we fulfill her dearest wish and leave her a classful of Freddy Walters'.

Mr. Lynch, our friendly math department head, will be sent 60 copies of "Donald Duck in Mathematics Land."

For Miss Magrath, known for her continued effort on behalf of the theatrical productions at the high school, we plan to produce a show with ready-made costumes.

Will

To Mr. McDonnell of the math department, we give the Celtics of 1973.

For Mr. Nelson, alias Mr. Physics, we have arranged a date with Miss Electra.

To Mr. Nicholson, we donate a yearbook which meets its own deadlines.

To the Nolan Sisters we give the Smith Brothers.

To Mr. Prohovich, who has high hopes, we leave a seven foot center.

To Miss Sangaleer, for her first year of dedicated service at the high school, we award a gold plated typewriter.

For Mr. Shubert, so he should never be hungry, we have purchased a snack-pack of cigars.

To Mr. Sgouros we leave an inflatable model for those times when he can't find a real one.

For Mrs. Shirley, we have negotiated a 100-year lease on the Gore Estate, with an option for 100 more.

To Mr. Steinberg, in view of his vast store of facts and figures, we leave a Guiness Book of World Records, to be revised and annotated.

For Miss Tahaney, we have purchased an old-fashioned China Doll.

For Mr. Walker, the man who has everything, we leave . . . nothing.

For Mr. Woronicz, we advise him to throw in the towel . . . money.

To Mr. Yetten, our own Pillsbury Doughboy, we give a pack of bubblegum baseball cards.

And for Miss Barbara Jean Ward and Mr. Edward Brown Matthews, we wish many years of happiness together.

We leave all these gifts along with our grateful thanks for three years at the High School.

Rabbi David Neiman
Rabbi, Temple Beth Israel, Waltham

Arthur J. Clark
Mayor

The Reverend W. Wyeth Williard
Pastor, Presbyterian Church of Waltham

A grain of sand passes through an hour glass
Like others it has a sameness,
But it is an individual among thousands.
The grain waits and follows the others
Until it passes through the center.
Here is the end, the end of an hour.

But turn the glass upside down.
And it starts over with a new beginning.

Susan Brophy

THE WHOLE

Tranquility . . .
  and then,
The winds within our souls did howl
and give rise to a little bubbling spring.
We struggled through texts of Jabberwocky, or was it . . . Algebra? and the little bubbling spring
      cut through the forest.
We scribbled and typed and made new friends,
  and the little bubbling spring
widened in the open field.
We gave our best and thus we grew.
  Before we knew, the Little bubbling spring
    met the ocean.

VOCATIONAL

"A Day in the Life . . ."

The day begins. Challenge. Activity — the creative process

Class Activity hones skills, widens horizons, provokes thought.

The Day Continues . . .

Mr. Ernest Viscarella takes a break?
Mr. Bill Ray counsels a student.

SHOPS: Auto Body, Auto Mechanics, Carpentry, Electronics, Machine, Metal Fabrication, Printing. Where precise skills are practiced, where the craftsman is forged.

A. break for lunch . . . then . . . Commitment, Concern

This is what the Waltham Vocational High is all about. Work, learning, and finally, people.

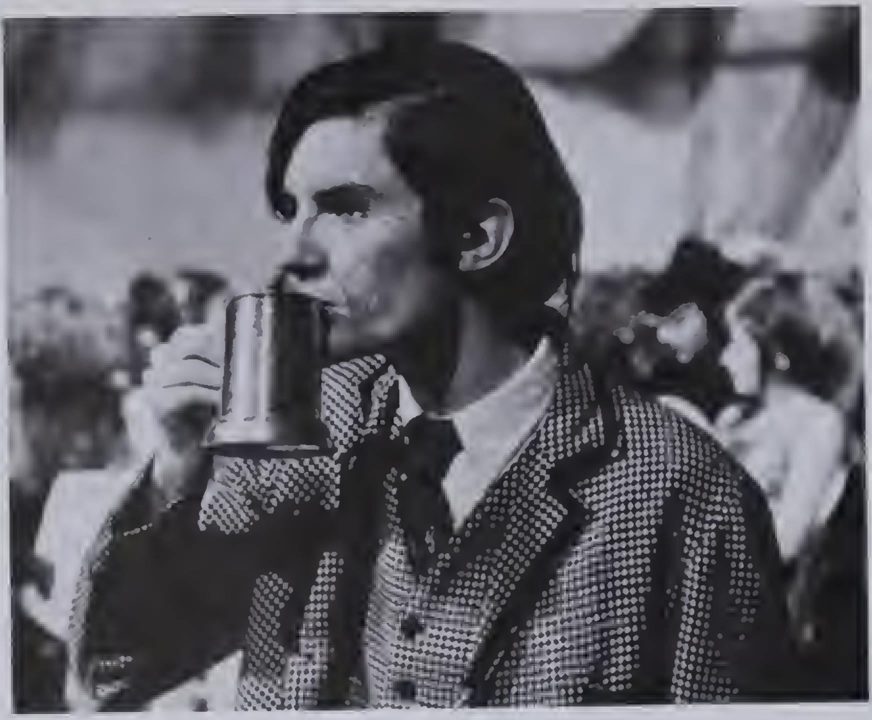
Drama

An array of magnificent productions: The Crucible; Mad Woman of Chaillot; Fiddler on the Roof; Monkey's Paw; Sorry, Wrong Number, and the Talent Show were presented this year under the direction of a formidable staff: Mr. Robert Eagle, Mrs. Karen DeMauro and drama enthusiasts. An art was presented.

Club



The Madwoman of Chaillot

The Crucible

This moving drama by Arthur Miller highlighted the magnificent acting ability of the students at Waltham High School. Each character was involved in a dramatic struggle against the conforming forces of society.

The Crucible was entered in the 1972 Drama Festival in Chelmsford and although it did not place in the finals, the cast put forth a commendable effort.

1972 Talent Show

This year's talent show displayed the hidden resources of the students at WHS. Under the misguided direction of those four infamous emcees: Dave Stepp, Larry Devlin, Jan Procyk and Bob Withrow, an extraordinary evening was presented.

EX VERIS FINIBUS
AD NOVA PRINCIPIA

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. Your High School diploma is all the experience you need. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

IT'S A BETTER WORLD

A better world awaits you,
Class of '72;
With your eagerness and knowledge,
The future's up to you.

The hope of peace in our entire world
Is showing us the way;
For a better life for everyone,
Improving day by day.

You have so much to offer,
The door is opened wide,
And man does not do battle,
With the brother by his side.

It's a beautiful world awaiting you,
Please help to keep it so;
Preserve our land and mountain streams,
For other people to know.

Guided by all that you have learned,
With hope an eternal flame,
You now must meet the challenge,
You have a world to gain.

A better world awaits you,
Class of '72;
We place our future in your hands,
And now it's up to you.
